

www.TRACS4Life.com

Joint Commission compliance features:

- Tracks all tissue products from ordering through to final disposition
- Traces tissue product issuance, movement and storage temperatures
- Links product ID to patient's medical record
- Provides comprehensive product recall processes
- Supplies easy to follow steps for adverse reaction investigations
- Automatically completes tissue usage cards
- Tracks products used in tissue reconstitution
- Records product quality checks (package integrity and temperature)
- Documents supplier FDA registration and state licensure

Differentiations with TRACS4Life™:

- Software developed and supported by tissue and blood experts
- Automated recall notification through RASMAS
- Tracer report for internal audits and Joint Commission surveys
- TRACS4Life™ validated by multiple Army medical center blood banks
- Tissue products from all vendors easily managed
- Software provides audit trail of actions taken by users

Customer benefits of TRACS4Life™:

- Automates manual process using manufacturers' barcodes
- Facilitates multi-departmental involvement in tissue management
- Provides role based access from any web browser
- Saves significant staff time in:
 - Completing manual tracking process
 - Reconciling product inventory
 - Processing a recall
- Dramatically reduces expired product, lost product and duplicate ordering

For additional information, please contact:

Jeff Winstead
Senior VP, Business Development
Office: 317-842-6502
Cell: 317-753-4805